

6.3. Federal Public Land Management Plans.

The U.S. Forest Service and Bureau of Land Management manage over 50% of Oregon's land area within Jackson County, and over 1,500 A. are located within the Jackson Creek watershed. Federal laws require detailed watershed management plans for these lands, and the law also requires that the plans be consistent with the Clean Water Act and state environmental protection programs.

This document was created with Win2PDF available at <http://www.daneprairie.com>.
The unregistered version of Win2PDF is for evaluation or non-commercial use only.